Saturday's Date Night in the Park to feature food trucks, live music, craft beer, Bill Murray and free admission

HISTORICAL PARK / Monday, April 20, 2015 ~ Food trucks, live music, craft beer and an outdoor movie all come together Saturday at the Farmers Branch Historical Park for the Spring edition of "Date Night in the Park."

Now in its third year, the increasingly popular event provides a Saturday evening escape for singles and parents, within the friendly confines of the Historical Park meadow. Gates open at 6:30 p.m. and admission to the park is free.

Eight food trucks are scheduled to be there this year. They include: Nammi Truck (Vietnamese cuisine, Banh Mi sandwiches), Rockin' Ricks (Cajun burgers, po-boys, fries), Easy Slider (slider burgers), Ruthie's Rolling Cafe (gourmet grilled cheese), SoCal Tacos (southern California-style tacos, plus burritos and quesadillas), Guava Tree (Cuban American), Bellatrino Pizza (gourmet pizza) and Gypsy Scoops (ice cream).

Additionally, Doc Popcorn will be there with a variety of popcorn flavors, including butter, kettle, jalapeno and cheddar. Most vendors have credit card capability but there will also be an ATM on site.

The Craft Beer Tasting area will have a number of craft beers available for $2 per taste or $5 for the bottle. Plus, there will be a bar with beer, wine and sodas.

Up and coming pop artist Ty Mayfield will serenade the crowd beginning at 7 p.m.

Then, the feature film "St. Vincent," starring Bill Murray and Melissa McCarthy, begins after dusk. "St. Vincent" is rated PG-13.

Childcare is available at the Community Recreation Center for $10 per child but advance registration is required at 972.247.4607. Fee includes activities and dinner.

The Farmers Branch Historical Park is located at 2540 Farmers Branch Lane, between Denton Drive and Ford Road and a short, five-minute walk from the Farmers Branch Green Line DART Station. Free parking will be the MetroSquare Business Park, two blocks south of the Historical Park on Ford Road with a free shuttle to the gate.
